

Providing Help and Hope to bring children into Forever Families

When you support Hearts of Compassion, you help provide funding for families who have sensed God's call to provide love and support for a child in need through adoption. With over 147 million orphans in the world, the need for adoptive families is huge. Hearts of Compassion exists as a ministry of Colonial Heights Baptist Church to help raise awareness of the orphan crisis and provide much-needed funds to assist in the adoption process — providing help and hope to bring children into forever families. Since its inception in 2011, Hearts of Compassion has partnered with more than 85 families as they have pursued adoption.
